

Aeroflex International Limited of the United Kingdom changing to Aeroflex Limited

Effective immediately, Aeroflex International Limited will change as follows: Aeroflex Limited. For licensing purposes, this change is in name only. There is no change to the companies' status, ownership, control, directors, staff or premises. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Aeroflex International Limited will not require an amendment to reflect the name change to Aeroflex Limited. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Aeroflex International Limited as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of the website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license application received after May 9, 2010, identifying Aeroflex International Limited as a party to the license will be considered for returned without action for correction to the new name.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect the name changes. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending there agreements. The executed amendments will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such. New DSP-83s must be executed as a result of the name change, as applicable.

Pending agreement applications that require amending must be brought to the attention of the assigned Agreement officer by the agreement holder. The necessary changes will be made prior to issuance when the agreement Office has been notified.
